World Conference on Faith and Order

The Business Committee has adopted the following budget for the year beginning October 1, 1923:

Clerical assistance	$7,100
Office rent, equipment and supplies	3,500
Postage, telegrams and cables	2,500
Translations	1,500
Travelling expenses of committee members	900
Printing	4,000
Meeting at Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 7–8, 1923	2,000
Subjects Committee	2,500
	$24,000

Without new gifts and appropriations in addition to those on which the Committee is already counting, less than half this sum will be available. Churches, Commissions and individuals are therefore urged to do their utmost for the support of the undertaking. Remittances may be made to the United States Trust Co., 45 Wall St., New York City, marked for the Continuation Committee.

During the past twelve months, substantial appropriations were made by certain Churches which have funds available for that purpose, but many Churches cannot take such action. The response from individuals has been most remarkable.

October, 1923.

Less than a fourth part of the gifts were more than five dollars. The givers were evenly divided between clergymen and lay people, though if details were available of gifts from parishes, woman's auxiliaries, etc., the lay people would predominate. More gifts were received from women than from laymen, but in their aggregate the gifts from laymen were much the larger.

The Committee expresses its grateful appreciation of this support, and repeats the hope that persons will be found with vision of the importance of unity, the difficulties to be faced and overcome, and the high expediency of the conference method, to give generously.
